Terry Wofford: Terry hails from Georgia originally and spent his childhood and most of his life around animals. He raised and trained a variety of breeds including 30 years of raising his own line of Catahoula Leopard Dogs. Terry and his partner now reside in Florida and both are certified AKC herding trial judges and provide clinics around the continent and offer lessons from their home in Hilliard, Florida.

Terry has vast experience with livestock as a rancher/handler, as a trainer and a dog handler. He currently owns two Australian Shepherds and has been a qualifier and finisher in the ASCA stockdog finals for several consecutive years with his dog "Mule". Terry has experience with many breeds and he himself has kept and trained Kelpies, Catahoula's, Aussies and other breeds. Terry is noted for his ability to work with people quietly while establishing confidence in the dog and handler. His years of experience with all livestock, and cattle in particular make this a special opportunity to work with a livestock person who sees things as they should be viewed, from the livestock and the dog's point of view. He will help develop your handling skills with the livestock and with your dogs.
