Judges

TBASCO Events at Tucker Creek

Stock Judge: Roy Sage is a regular visitor to Thunder Bay as a judge & clinician. He is an ASCA & AHBA herding judge from Nyssa, Oregon, where he raises and trains Aussies under his kennel name O'Sage Aussies, and travels extensively teaching Herding for all breeds.

Stock & Conformation Judge David Clayton is an ASCA Senior Breeder judge & Stock judge. He and his wife Laura (also an ASCA judge) live in Quincy, Florida where they own Sunfire kennel (ASCA HOFX #17), with dogs titled in Versatility, Herding, Conformation, Agility, Obedience, & Rally.

Conformation Judge: Carol Ann Hartnagle has spent her entire life with Australian Shepherds, and has competed in Stock, Conformation, & Obedience since 1971. She is an ASCA Senior Breeder judge, Obedience, & Junior Showmanship judge, and (with her father Ernie) author of the book 'The Total Australian Shepherd - Beyond the Beginning'. Carol Ann lives in Brighton, Colorado.

Conformation and Obedience Judge: Lynn Hamon hails from San Diego, California and is an ASCA Senior Breeder judge & ASCA Obedience judge. She has titled dogs in Obedience, Herding, and Agility, and her kennel Taisho Aussies (est 1982) is ASCA HOF Kennel#52.

Agility Judge Judy Boone has been involved in Agility since 1996 when neighbours invited her to bring her aussie and give it a try. She soon became an Agility judge, then an ASCA Course Reviewer and ASCA Supervisor Agility judge. She currently chairs the ASCA Agility committee. Judy lives with her family in Berea, Ohio and says her personal philosophy about agility is:
Having Fun = Success.
